

Kingston Summer Music 2010
Our 11th year!
Monday, July 12 – Friday July 16, 2010
Regiopolis-Notre Dame High School
130 Russell Street, Kingston
Cost $95

Philosophy: The goals of the school are to provide professional instruction on band instruments for performance in concert bands, jazz bands, small ensembles and large ensembles. Five mornings (8:30 – 12:30) of intensive instruction will lead to a Friday afternoon (4 pm) concert with each student performing in at least three ensembles.

Instruction: Hugh Johnston Music teacher at Regi-ND, local trumpet player and conductor (Director of School, Massed band, trumpet, ensembles); Mike Verner Music teacher at Sydenham H.S., trumpet player in the Kingston Symphony (trumpet, concert and jazz bands); Anne Palmer Local flute teacher and flute player in the Kingston Symphony (flute, ensembles); Gordon Craig Queen's University clarinet instructor, orchestra and band conductor and Kingston Symphony clarinetist (clarinet, concert band, ensembles); John Palmer Local composer, conductor and Kingston Symphony trombonist (low brass, jazz band, ensembles); Greg Runions Queen's Jazz Ensemble director, Kingston Symphony percussionist, jazz composer and drummer (percussion-rhythm section, jazz band).
Other instructors will be hired as needed.

Who can attend? The school is open to anyone who plays a band instrument and enjoys making music. This is not a school for absolute beginners; all students must have at least a basic knowledge of both playing a band instrument and reading music. Advanced students are also challenged by activities such as Senior Concert Band and advanced ensembles.

Important information! Participants must provide their own instrument and transportation to and from the school. All students will be supplied with a music folder, and a T-shirt for the final concert. The final concert is Friday, July 16th at 4:00 p.m. at Regi. Parents and friends are encouraged to attend.
